I understand that tuition ($_____) for Recreational class(es) is due on the first of each month. I understand that tuition is due for these classes whether the student attends class or not. Thirty (30) days written notice must be given to cancel classes. Monthly tuition will automatically be charged to my credit card or drafted from my bank account (information shown above). If APAC is unable to charge my account within ten days from the date of invoice, a $25 late fee may be added to the amount due. A $50 annual registration fee is due in June or upon registration for new students. Any student whose account is past due on the first of each month will not be allowed to participate in any studio event or recreational class. No credit will be given for nonparticipation due to past due account status. My signature below authorizes APAC to charge my account. _____

Initial one of the following:

_____ I would like my credit card charged automatically on the first of each month for tuition expenses.

_____ I would like my bank account automatically drafted on the first of each month for tuition expenses.
